

Prof. Rowena Fajardo Zoilo (Philippines)

(jaszoilo@gmail.com)

I am the director of Bicol University National Service Training Program (April 2006 to present). I graduated with a degree Bachelor of Arts in Political Science at the BU College of Arts and Sciences, Legazpi City in 1989. I finished my Master in Public Administration at Divine Word College of Legazpi in 2011. For three years, I served as the Social Welfare Assistant in the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD). In 1995, I entered BU Extension Service Center as a Community Development Officer. The fruits of my genuine service and determination paved way to handle various designations in the University. As an adviser of student projects and organizations, my initiatives together with the youth gained local and international commendations and recognitions. I was one of the participants to the 2013 Annual Conference of Extension Disaster Education Network (EDEN) held on October 8-11, 2013 at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, USA.

I also serve as the head of the Consultancy, Linkages and other Support Services of the BU Extension Service Center. Currently serving as the President of the Philippine Society of NSTP Educators and Implementers in Region V and Chairman on Special Programs and Projects of PSNEI-National. In 2012, I was installed Charter President of the Inner Wheel Club of Manila 101-Mayon in 2012, a group of women bound by friendship empowering women and nurturing the life of the people in through community service. At present, the Treasurer and nominated President in the Rotary Club of Metro Legazpi for 2016