“CONFLICT-FREE ANGKOR WAT TEMPLE’S SURROUNDING AREA”

Action Plan by Srun Bunsroeun
Phnom Penh, Cambodia
E-mail: bunsroeun@yahoo.com

- Introduction: Cambodia is a developing country suffering so much from civil war. Many problems are currently happening that effect the country's development.

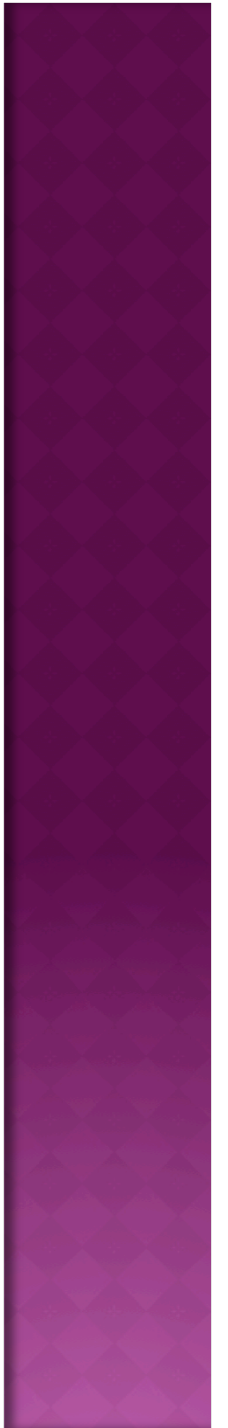

PROBLEM STATEMENT

- Land dispute between local residents with authorities in Apsara conservation area in Siem Reap Province, Cambodia

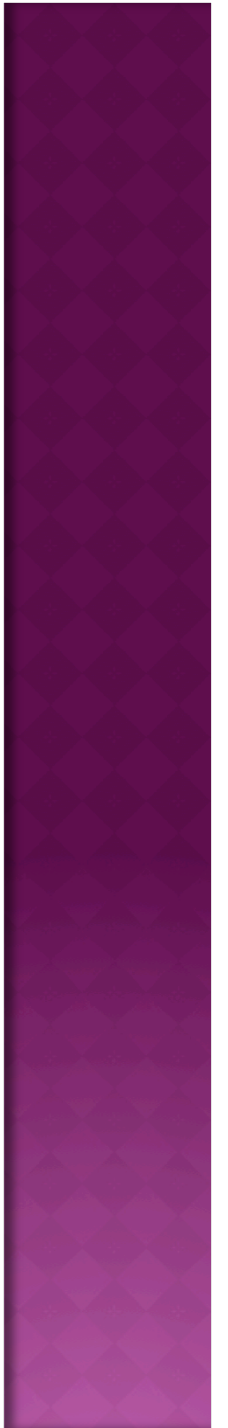

GOAL

- ◉ To create a peaceful and harmonious community

OBJECTIVES

- To find the root causes of the dispute
- To provide satisfactory solutions to both parties
- To create understanding about the reasons of the dispute and what can be done among residents and authorities

STAKEHOLDERS

- ◉ Middle-aged residents
- ◉ Village chief and commune chief
- ◉ Relevant authorities

TIME FRAME:

- ◉ We will spend a week collecting information and requests from local residents
- ◉ We will spend another 3 days talking to authorities (later stage)

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

My role is to be a coordinator to get this action plan done.

First: Have to talk with residents and collect their concerns and requests and after that talk to the head man of the area about the concerns of the people living there.

Second: Combine information and requests

Third: write a formal petition and send it to government for the solution.

STRENGTHS:

- ◉ Groups of youths who have good communication skills
- ◉ Working as a team
- ◉ Share responsibilities and ideas from many different people

WEAKNESSES:

- ◉ Education barrier
- ◉ Opposite ideas
