

Peace Messenger

Ibuki Yamane(Japanese)

Keiichi Kurosawa(Japanese)

Background

- Lack of opportunities to discuss social issues for Japanese students
- Lack of interest about social issues among Japanese students

However

- The future of the Japan depends on them
- We think that is problem

Plan

- Hold a class to educate local Japanese students to learn about peace problems
- Get them to have an opportunity to debate peace issues that we talked about earlier

Goals

Educate Japanese young students and get them aware of peace problem so that they will be able to work for peace in future

Expected Outcomes

- Attendance to be more aware of social issues and an interest of social issues to remain throughout their daily lives
- Make them aware of the importance of knowledge when thinking about solving issues, which will motivate them to study harder

Why we?

- ✓ We have a strong relationship with local school and its students
- ✓ Therefore we will be able to carry out the discussion smoothly even with students who are not used to debating social issues

Time Frame

April	Get permission from school to held the class
May	Prepare for class
June/ July	Giving a lecture
